

Lawrence K. Elton

Larry began his banking and finance career in 1961 at the Marine National Exchange Bank in Milwaukee. He left Marine in 1965 to join Midland National Bank, where he became Sr. Vice-President of commercial lending. In 1985 he joined F&M Financial Services, a publicly owned bank holding company, to become president of F&M Bank and executive vice-president of the holding company.

In 1992 Larry left F&M to become a co-founder and principal of Advantage.

Larry is an alumnus of Ripon College and received a BS degree in economics from University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.